Friday, January 2

Woke 6 and did not sleep again. Up time 8.15. G. out early to hairdresser. I worked on papers etc. and left at 11.30 for St. Michael's Charles Square, Memorial Service for Jack Squish who died Dec. 2 Address by Alan Fergusson. He is a Catholic. I did not recognize anyone but people seemed to know me. Got in dilly in 1.30 and got out shivering for G. To but soon after lunch. G. & I then got up and left for the Lakes at 5.10. To for Italians and Fergusson G. disliked him but the Eschers are making a good impression on him. I had tea at 6. Honey, pears and peaches arrived from Shilling & Caffer Co. All my new socks dressing goods G had recently when she came home. That Jim + Dubonnet

Spent 2 days for dinner

Saturday, January 3

Up 7.15 Directly after breakfast and morning routine, out to 1st day A.S.N. 'cals, very glad and department. Spiked with people, bargain trucks and customers. Assistant frantic but friendly and as helpful as possible. Got 4 pair pyjamas, rain-coat and Knicker's Gray Cashmere sluggish redneck. Took me from 10.30 to 12.30.
Home. Cat out dumps, idle to lunch. W. Lloyd Coates Posted to Horatia hat-water bottle Cover that Gladys Wynneham sent as usual to E. I am brought curious little bronze baby in - mounted to show. Rotted 4-6. Read long typed letter fr. Rex Belknap showing signs of age. Read Times & E. Standford brakes before & Charles after dinner. Cat out his pretzel-faking

Sunday, January 4

up 7.50. Pinned piece of material on Kew 2nd Sunday after Christmas 17 grey trousers for myself minutes to finish. Finished 9.30. C. pressed with labels marked with H. worked on Income Tax Returns for Jones & Tull's in reply to his request for details of Amberley Express etc.
C. got out vodka and tomato for her Sunday lunch on Bloody Mary.
Went by Sunday mid-day meal. Went on with my Income Tax returns.
Woke up early this morn.
and did not sleep again.
So felt tired. To bed about 4 and up for last at 6.15 after good sleep.
Then and headed at 5. Times. Spent day fencing report and O.
Jones. W. Jarvis & P. P. P.

Monday, January 5

Up 7.15. Put old dressing given in space room for Mrs Shaw Papp and found much on new dressing given with rapidly rising Breakfast 7.15. C. P. P. P. fast. In bed but going out for shopping and restaurant snack lunch. I left old gray trousers with Ruggles.
Bridge mender to patch.
Got stamps. To Ruggles for black, gray & paper dot this. Tried without success to get silk to repair facing of Harley's dress. 7 yards.
Saw Miss Donaldson about curtains and on etc. Saw Jones about muffers. May have had for 2 months. Ruggles glad to have muffer. C. to Ruggles. I had to and went back. Taking muffer Chippendale $400. muffer. Home C. late for dinner. Put away last of Xmas things.

Tuesday, January 6

Up 7.30 Met rainy day. C. & I set out - Epiphany before 11 and took a taxi to Maddox St where Simmonds & Stanley Lane were having a sale of silk. She paid 11.5.3 for pure silk pale blue which cost her down quilt, and I paid 2.14.6 for moiré black to be used for a Stanley's dressing gown. She went on to Marshall & Sainsbury and got a blue silk dressing gown for 4.10.0. I walked to Oxford Circus and came home in a 73 bus.
After lunch, W. Alex visited. Read paper and had tea. Made dinner. After dinner paid bills w. Mary Unrecorded items missing. But 12.00

Wednesday, January 7

Up 8.15 after dreaming and waking from six. Had bath, calmly wanted to go off duty so for I went out to the Sp. room to read of Charles Chaplin's film
The Dictator. I took Harley's dressing gown with the black, green silk to Maxine Roberts to be refaced. Spent at least an hour at Mrs.
Moules looking at patterns for sitting room curtains till 2.30 The Bradstons.
Looked in on Specs who wants to keep my four photo graphs and by. Took a little longer. Home had a few papers and rested. Tea read paper Drinks dinner. W. Margaret Cook paid bills.

Thursday, January 8

Sept well. Wake and up 80°C. Cold day with sun. Another demand from Medical Protection Society for Dr. Mason's fee, just after I had told Q. yesterday that as a result of my letter of Nov. 16, they seemed to have dropped their claim.
After morning routine at about 11.30 I went to Vedmonster Bank Charing Cross and drew £15 cash to pay Q. £10. my half share of Peter & Ma. friend. and £5. she lent me for my dinner & gown bill.
Peter's slide out in frequent and I didn't get home till 8.0.
After lunch Mr. Smith's slide arrived & put. As not clearing it, I took No. 6 to Mr. Moore, sample to Mr. Moore, and got given Green. Home called 11.30-6.

Dr. Mason's demand for fee

Friday, January 9

wake at 5 and did not sleep properly after that spent morning composing letter to Capman and making a fair copy of Keep. E. left in his ready made suitcases that she likes so much for luncheon with Ida. It was 1:30 when I wrote Lett. Very tired and one has to wait a very long time in bus cues. I got a sandwich and glass of better ale at pub. house. Arrived for 5.
Then got whiskey and sherry at Barry's. Carpet men J. Holes & Beaumont at work when I got home. Had some biscuits and cheese and went out again. Called Owen & Beaumont to see if I could get a bargain carpet for extra room but Mr. Beaumont said - Don't glue and a pair of old tiles at Stalls. He killed my bargain by saying I left as mate. Home 4:30

Freezing cold

Slept well and woke and up at 7.30. Finished breakfast at 9.20 and C. still asleep. T. & M. Rowley of scales & Beaumont and called on him before 11, stopping at Inverness minding for my grey trousers and at last office to have my kettles & Repington weighed Rowley showed me the beginning but I don't inclined to leave sitting room carpet - that is a good condition & kept fast burnt spots by fire place. Home before 12.
C. just getting up. Saw the man who had come late the usual last night. Working on accounts before and after lunch. Pinned back down 1-2 carpet - which frayed edge Ruled 4.15 - 6 marks on

Still Cold

up 80°c. Clear at Sunday

1st Sunday after Epiphany and spent morning studying Wedmore's Book accident. That finished last night. After lunch paid balance on Charles Carpenter bill. Refused birthday & sent a cable yesterday.

Went to visit Rose's lunch and not up till 5:30 Looked at papers and W. Rachel's Secret. Made drinks as usual.
After dinner W. Crochard W. John Huntington
and Roger. Have not been out all day.
Increasingly conscious of my failing memory.
Not to say more.
Packed up Cabot twice to take to music mender. He has

Hilary Law Sittings begin woke round about 5 AM did not sleep again, but finally felt all right after bath and breakfast. Out early to immensely muddy with snow tires suit and on to Mrs Mauro's where I spent the morning fruitfully studying samples. Out to lunch at Cadillac where their sandwiches are made into rather soggy fish and bread. Then again

W. Slept about the play

Monday, February 9

Slept well. Up 7:45.
Dressed slowly, took all my usual routines before and after a breakfast for which I had no appetite. Felt so tired that I spent the morning sleeping in chair by a nice wood good fire. E. went out when I was asleep and woke me up when she came in. It took her a long time to move or let me know she was up. Could hardly eat a mouthful of lunch, but drank a good much. Quoted at 12:45 after lunch and then left dinner and the. Then left in chair after lunch, and then went to rest in bed at 5:15.
Slept. Quoted at 5:15.
Awoke at dinner. Could hardly eat a mouthful but had milk.
G. asked Dr. Peckham to call to see me tomorrow morning. I felt in chair after dinner. Mr. Fort admits at last that I can walk.

Tuesday, February 10

Woke and slept in early morning Shrove Tuesday but felt too utterly full to get up or move or take my bath or even eat breakfast. Had just oranges and cup of tea. Had not seen Papa or last night and he arrived about 11. I had written out my symptoms. Almond Cakes and none under in any danger. E. Gemalet Throat operation. Finger nails sprung. He approved of feet and fextails. He approved of feet and he says he shares. He gave me your car to put on the 1st. 3. He gave me 8 St. 3. He prescribed milk of A.M. and night. Short walk in the morning. Small turn over slept. C. out to play with Mouse blind in to Duhamel's wife. C. out with potato chips. C. + Mouse came back a little after 10 disgusted with Play. A Taste of Honey

Wednesday, February 11

Up at 8.30. Spaced and had bath and intended to do Ash Wednesday but when it came to the front still in bed for breakfast and lunch. Read D. M. Moore Had @lucofins. Compliment black

Thursday, February 12

Half awake dreamo most of night. Up about 8. Shave bath & dress.
Casualty day in bath house.
Another misty mud day but not actual fog. C. back-fast in bed and out to have dinner lunch and probably fill. I feel worried with tracheal secretion and cough, definite and unpleasant but less. I read Mirror and Times only orange and tea for breakfast. No work or heavy but occupied all morning. Morning chick and grape for lunch of wh. I ate a trifle. W. Night about Mr Rusty's electricity bill. Rote but did not sleep. Up 5:30.
Back & we had tea. Read B.
Standard. Read St Paul Epistle not conomizing. Drinks. Dinner.
Read Dr. D. P. Bailey Book. Slept

Friday, February 13

Slept later than ever and woke at 9.15 conscious that C was bending over me. She said afterwards that I was so still she thought I was dead. I did not shower but had my bath and breakfast about 11.0. Another still misty day. I took Dr Ripen and prescribed Calceolus Complex and black pills.
Read D. McKee and when the phone came could not catch anything. Sent away postbox etc and had only grapes and cheese. Rested at 1.30 and then rested but could not sleep. C + I tea. Felt worried with complete worry on against food. Read E. Scanlon's drinks and ate wheat a little dinner. I am Read Tamas Book of Poetry and found Palmer's Book of which I had recited to C and then read aloud. C was quite in mood and thought her much better than yesterday

Saturday, February 14

St. Valentine's Day

My mind revolved in this night sleeping and waking round having a p. e. made of white cord in glass dome to send to the Jewish Lady who gave it to me. I wanted to get into touch with and possibly to go to Fleet next summer. Still deaf probably from black pills and complete revulsion against fact. Did not take black pills for decades or complais. Sat by electric fan + aged. I da cure in lunch but I did not feel well enough and had the curious complete deafness and had put a little lunch in my room and then rested and slept. Up 5.30 and had tea w. R. Wood per and read E. Standard Thomas w. his granddaddy's at Kimworth Hotel. Drinks. After dinner read London Review book

Sunday, February 15

Another mild gray day with gleams of sun in the early Quinquagesima afternoon. Up 8.30. Dressing perhaps a little reduced and cough slightly less mucous from trachea but still repulsive against face. Oatmeal and tea only for breakfast. Racked at Sunday Express at breakfast and Sunday Times in the morning. Got leg electric for in sitting room Mrs. Duller has intended since never any advertisement or reviews of Pictorial books. C. m. her usual Sunday Bleary Mary I had half a bottle of beer and a very little mutton, vegetables apple that chews and proper. Sat by electric fan and dropped off and then heavily slept when I went to bed. Taps for tea 6.00 Thomas here with his year book of photographs of Gdms. Dr. J.
Thomas back to school after vacation. Spent evening reading

Mrs. Langley

Monday, February 16

Another still gray sunless day. Slept well. Woke up 8:45. C. had a giddy turn in night and then slept till 10:00 this morning. I had only orange and tea for breakfast and felt wretched with the cruel secretions of my bowels in my throat.
When I had finished breakfast and toilet I simply sat wrapped in shawl by stove & fell in sitting & slept. G. got her own spurry I was able to eat a fried egg and a bit of last night's apple leaf and cheese. I had read D. Mirror after breakfast but simply lay back in chair and slept till lunch till 3 when I went to rest and slept again till 7 when C. came in and wakes me.
Made orange soon after tea. Slept in chair after supper when I woke up before 10:30 and read Times. I inhaled Fernald's Balsam after lunch and again the last time at night

Woke 7 Dusted on half salut. up 9 o'clock. Dressed the same. Again stepped shower.
Dr. Rappan came as was functioning dressing. Dances that only dresses comes from his black pills but says it will last 3 weeks. Afternoon Fishes Balsam. Only ordinary tea for breakfast. G. went out shopping and a pick up lunch. I tied up back on Peter the great for Peter. Lunch of sandwiches, cheese and grapes.
Paid bills and sorted things in top right hand drawer in black chest in cutting room. Then went 3.30 - 6 P.M. back & finished writing and we had tea. Then read Times and Standard and made room lesson & honey drink as I had not enough for gin. After dinner slept in chair and read Horatio's Paid B's Walpole Bell

Wednesday, February 18

Another exactly the same mild day of Feb. up 7.30 Tel. Barry for liquor. Again only orange and tea for breakfast. Tel. Cooper about photographing Oscar but they cannot do Sp. C. size. 20 Arrangements for John O'Sullivan to come tomorrow morning.
Tel. Sketching about suit & reply to Miss O'Sullivan. Made Fisher's Balsam and inhaled for a long time sitting in chair by electric fire. In getting room and then fell asleep. Got B. but sherry. After lunch looked at Times and then went to post card etc. 3 and slept till 5.30. Tea with B. at 6 and then she went to Morrison's in ready-made dress.
That I detest. I thought I try not to say so. Read C. O'Sullivan about starting a letter to W. L. Morrison but was at Morrison's but I don't like her

Monday after dinner

Another foggy day. up 7.30 Rocks & orange marmalade for breakfast. I ordered Fruite Balsam. John Graham and assistant came to photograph coral from E. bath. We flicked it up in dining room for light with my Talens lens as back ground. Read Times. Out Wherry for E.
Lunch at E's. Photo of shagbills and tomato and after I told Matilda this morning that I liked baked apples I brown. She promptly baked them for lunch which I appreciated. Read Mr. R. B. B. B. and out to rest about 3. up and the 5. 45. Read E. Standard I arrived gray with but about completely worn out. Made Dr.
Martinez for Moara who arrived at 7.30. Taper warm claret for chicken and good for whiskey after. Read Mr. R. B. B. ripping up one of the green brocade Draper curtains from dining-room. Good living and interesting that I think might be cleaned and used for something. Most of the center of the brocade is intact but thin and frail. Might cause a bit spread. Not nearly immaculate when I stopped to get E's sherry. Lunch and

A lovely sunny day again. Still have lingering colds & do not feel well. Anna also has a cold. Unpacked Cox's Orange Squeezer. That I ordered some time ago. Ted Ricketts is asking about my mate that he is trying to get a friend to put an order for. Completed first draft of letter to Hollister and was just going to have a sandwich for lunch when Dins and I arrived. It seems that by mistake I had asked him for lunch. I got out Cherry and Matsuda and some other things an excellent luncheon party and we sat down at 1.30. Then left there after a very good time. Dins. Ted. and I. Read papers
